

Spirituality and Resilience Assessment Packet

BUILDING A RESILIENT WORLDVIEW THROUGH SPIRITUALITY

Registration and Purchase Fees for Professionals

The SRA can be used professionally by clergy, mental health professionals, and educators with background in the social sciences, religion, or contemplative practice.

Professionals who meet these criteria can purchase a 'master template' of the SRA, and register for its use. Registration allows them to make unlimited copies of the master template. All copies must reproduce the copyright notations included on the 'master template.' There is no time limitation on the registration.

Institutions that provide religious, mental health, or educational services can also register to use the SRA. Institutional registration allows appropriate professionals currently employed by the institution to use the SRA and make unlimited copies. All copies must reproduce the copyright notations included on the 'master version.' There is no time limitation on the institutional registration. However, professionals no longer employed by the institution cannot continue to use the SRA without additional registration.
